

A long time ago, in a land far away, which almost no one knows, lived a little girl. This little girl was called Makayla and she was loved by everyone. Makayla loved to play in a little grotto. The grotto was small, and smelled like the sea, and she could hear the waves from the ocean outside. It was a magical place. Makayla knew the stories that the people in the kingdom told about the grotto. They said that many years ago, an emerald had come with the tide from the sea and landed in the grotto.

One afternoon, while she was playing at her favorite place, Makayla discovered something shiny in the back of the cave. "I want to find out what this shiny thing is!", she said to herself and she tried getting closer, but she could not climb the slippery rocks. Makayla decided to jump. She landed on the next rock in the grotto. The shiny something kept blinking and Makayla saw that it was a beautiful emerald.

Makayla leaned forward to touch the emerald, but suddenly the rock was moving and she fell next to the emerald on the hard rock and hit her head. And a strange light came out of it, absorbed the little girl and Makayla got stuck in the precious stone for many years.

And so begins our story....

In Gruner See, far from our place, far from Makayla and far from the magical grotto, a girl was born, who was as beautiful as the moon and had emerald green eyes. This girl was named Chloe Celeste and she had the power to cure everything. She only had to touch it and it would mend by itself. When she was 3 years old, she had met two Fairies and a donkey who kept talking and knew how to say a lot of tongue-twisters. These were her best friends in the world and they loved and protected the little girl.

Chloe played with friends every day and they had lots of fun. Their favorite place is the big old library at the Gruner See. Chloe and her friends loved playing hide-and-seek between the bookshelves and playing catch. And sometimes, Chloe was so fascinated by the books, she forgot to hide. M she was reading the big old books. The fairies said:” Be careful Chloe, some books have funny tongue twisters, and some have recipes for magic potions. But some old books can do dangerous things. You must never these books!”

They called them the bad books, and Chloe and her friends knew they cannot open the book or talk to it, because when she was talking to the book, the book would unleash a great snowstorm on themselves.

One sunny day they went for walk and found a beautiful emerald. But they didn't know that inside the precious stone was Makayla. Makayla, who was once a beautiful girl, has turned into an evil witch. She stepped out of the emerald, looked at the donkey, the fairies and Chloe and asked:

“What are you? Sorry. Who are you?”

Chloe answered: “I am Chloe Celeste, and this are my Friends, Harry the donkey, and the Fairies Judy and Melania. And who are you?”

“I am Makayla, a really bad witch! I was once caught in the emerald, but now I am finally free. And you little girl will come with me!”

”Wait, who?”- Harry says

Makayla yelled and unleashed a great storm: “I am Makayla, everyone should know me!”

But the donkey was still a little bit confused, till the fairies told him: “Makayla, Harry.. the witch from the magical grotto.”

Suddenly Makayla started turning in circles and disappeared in a huge black cloud. But not only Makayla was gone, Chloe too was gone! Harry the donkey gasped: “oh no!!! The witch took Chloe with her! We have to get her”

And so, the fairies and the Harry had to find of a magician named Mermin, the less famous brother of Merlin, to ask him for help. They walked for days and nights and finally reached the house of the second most famous magician Mermin.

Mermin was outside gardening when he saw them and he asked: "Why have you come here?" The fairies told him everything that happened while Harry only tried to eat all the magical plants in Mermin's garden. And while Harry turned from blue to green and from 5m tall to 5cm small, the wizard agreed to help the three friends. He said: "You need to get a green rose, but not one of those that are on the computer, you need a real green rose. Like this one, you see." And he walked passed the donkey who was just about to turn into a huge donkey-sized balloon and showed the fairies a wonderful green rose. "also, you need a ruby ring with exactly six diamonds."

Why do need we this? – Judy asked. "You need this, because with the rose and the ring, you can you remove the heaviest rocks of the grotto! And there your will find Chloe" Mermin said. But that's not all, of course you will need to say the magic words:" Hocus pocus! Then you will put the ring in the green rose and the rocks will be removed from the grotto. And Chloe will be free!"

"Okay, thank you Mermin"

"You're welcome", said Mermin "take this with you", and handed them the balloon which was slowly turning into the donkey again.

Mermin swished his magic wand and teleported the three friends into the grotto. In the grotto Melania saw a huge rock and she asked: "Chloe? How are you? We are here to get you out of there!" And they could hear a very weak voice: "My friends are here! I am fine, but please be quick and help me!"

Then the donkey said the words "hocus pocus!" as the wizard had told them, while the fairies put the ring on the green rose. The huge rock was flung into the air and Chloe was able to leave the grotto!

The three friends found Makayla outside the grotto where she had caused a terrible disaster in the kingdom. The only one who could stop her was Chloe, because Chloe was the girl who could cure everything she touched. Chloe was the girl from Gruner See who could turn evil witch Makayla into a good person again. So she snuck upon her and touched her head. Makayla turned around with an angry face and wanted to fight Chloe but then she started smiling and the whole kingdom could see how she became good again.

So at the end the evil witch Makayla turned into a good girl again, and the four became the best of friends and everyone in the kingdom loved them.

